MAP OF THE TERRITORY acquired from MEXICO
by the Gadsden Treaty 1853

234 [Map — Kansas and Nebraska] COLTON, JOSEPH H. Nebraska And Kansas. New York: J. H. Colton & Co., 1854. 69.4 x 53 cm. Fine coloring. Folded into original brown cloth case with title in gilt on front cover. Minor splitting repaired. A fine copy.

First edition. Eberstadt Catalogue 114 item 248 states: "This is esteemed as the first separate map of Kansas and Nebraska Territories and probably one of the earliest maps to depict in detail the Montana Wyoming Colorado country. It elaborately delineates all known topographical features, the location of forts, settlements and Indian tribes, the explorers' trails, emigrant routes, the Oregon Trail, the Northern Route, the Central Route, the Southern Route, and the lines of proposed railways." Heaton Kansas Pocket Maps 1. "This important, gaily-colored and delightfully decorated map is mislabeled in addition to Kansas and Nebraska, details of Texas and New Mexico are featured." Inset: Map of the Territory Acquired from Mexico by the Gadsden Treaty. 1854. 11.4 x 29 cm. Unknown to Phillips and Galt. A splendid and rare production.
